KEYPORT HIGH SCHOOL

KEYPORT, NEW JERSEY

Foreword

It is with pleasure that the senior class presents the 1960 KEY. The four years spent in high school are, perhaps, the most joyous and carefree years in a person's life. We hope, therefore, that this book will help you to remember your years at "Keyport High" and the teachers and friends who helped make them such happy ones.

We wish to express our most sincere thanks to the Keyport High School staff for the cooperation they have given us throughout this year.

THE WASHINGTON TRIP

On March 9, 1960, one hundred nineteen chattering seniors and eight patient chaperons who were Frank Woods, head chaperon, Mrs. Kathryn Nolan, Mrs. Burtina Parcels, Miss Ethel Reilly, Mrs. Jean Robinson, Mr. Raymond Grosholz, Mr. Charles DiFazio, and Mr. Kenneth Robinson, piled into three Rollo buses for the annual trip to Washington.

At nine o'clock, we arrived at the Greyhound Bus Cafeteria for snacks to keep us going until twelve forty-five, when we arrived in Washington. We toured through the Capitol building and then posed amid the puddles for the traditional class picture. Then everyone scurried to Scholl's Cafeteria to form a line for lunch.

Rumors of snow sent us to visit Mount Vernon, George Washington's estate, where we spent the afternoon. Then we headed for our motels in Alexandria, Virginia, Brookside Motel for the girls, and the Penn-Daw Motel for the boys.

We had dinner at the Old Club Restaurant in Alexandria and visited Washington International Airport. It was snowing pretty heavily and we appreciated the warmth of the terminal building. Finally we hurried to our motels and a good night's rest.

We'll never forget that knock on the door at six in the morning. The girls joined the boys at Penn-Daw for breakfast. First on our schedule was a look at Arlington National Cemetery, where we saw the impressive statue of the Iwo Jima flag raising and we tramped through the snow to see the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. The Bureau of Printing and Engraving was next. (How can they handle all that money so calmly?) Then we toured the FBI building and saw the "long arm of the law" in action. It was time for lunch, so we hurried to Scholl's to eat our fill and rest our weary feet.

After lunch we saw the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Lincoln Memorial, and then we went back to our motels to dress for dinner and a dance afterwards.

After breakfast at Penn-Daw we spent our last day at the Smithsonian Institute, Jefferson Memorial, Washington Monument, and the National Gallery of Art. We ate a hearty lunch at Scholl's and turned our heads homeward.

We stopped at the Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland, and saw the tomb of John Paul Jones. We ate dinner at Howard Johnson's and piled into our buses for our long ride.

Upon arrival in Keyport, one hundred nineteen tired but happy seniors and eight weary chaperons found their friends, families, and luggage, and made their way home.

Class History

FRESHMAN YEAR

Could you believe it, 1956 and we're freshmen! It didn't take us long to get into the swing of high school. We eagerly participated in football, basketball, band, twirling, cheerleading, plus many other activities. We cheered our football team onto a Thanksgiving victory over Matawan and an undefeated season. We elected Charles Brown as our Student Council representative and were on our way to becoming an outstanding class at Keyport High School.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Our second year brought more fun and honors. Eight members of our class were inducted in the Honor Society and Charles Brown and Noele Doyle became our representatives to the Student Council. The biology students well remember their trip to the Bronx Zoo. This would be our last year for full session classes and we looked forward to our junior year when we would be dismissed at noon.

JUNIOR YEAR

School was over at twelve every day, but we certainly didn't enjoy being to school before eight every morning! We now had our class rings and class officers. We elected our President, Helen Heckelmann; Vice-President, Paul Wharton; Secretary, Noele Doyle; and Treasurer, Carol Hausler; who were assisted by our advisers, Mrs. Carlson and Mr. DiFazio. The girls earned credit toward senior class expenses by selling candy and tickets to our two dances, "Shamrock Shuffle" and "Juniors Go Jamaica." We now had taken important positions in many school activities preparing us to be better leaders in our senior year.

SENIOR YEAR

Seniors, at last! We all looked forward to one of the most exciting years of our lives. The school was still operating on a double session, but by this time most of us were adjusted to the schedule of getting to school at an early hour. We elected officers for our Senior Year as follows: Noele Doyle, President; Al Wenzel, Vice President; Gail Howley, Secretary; Marguerite Frantz, Treasurer. Our advisers, Mrs. Nolan and Mr. DiFazio were always on hand to take care of all our important business transactions. For all their help we would like to say, thank you.

It was a year full of fun, successful dances and athletic achievements. Gloria Rodrigues and Larry Dane were crowned King and Queen at our annual Open House. On March 9 we started out for Washington, D. C. A good time was had by everyone, even if we did have to trudge through the snow!

Next came the Spring Concert which was a big success as usual. Time was really beginning to zip by now! After those final exams were over, we all looked forward to the Junior-Senior Dinner Dance. It was a fun-filled evening, enjoyed by all.

Then came graduation. Suddenly, we realized what a short trip it had been from Freshman to Senior. All of us were leaving to go our different ways, but with us we took many happy memories of Keyport High School.
